

Read all of this thoroughly before beginning.
At the end, you will need to print four references, and go buy a Duo Tang folder.

101 Requirements

In addition to your application, you need to prepare a Leadership Report of your recent accomplishments, activities, involvements, etc. Be creative in showing us your leadership potential. The Leadership Report should cover some or all of the following areas:

- 1) Commitment to Christ
- 2) Leadership Potential
- 3) Ministry Involvement
- 4) Future Plans
- 5) Desire to attend Conference
- 6) Relationship to Others
- 7) School Grade Level/Academic Achievement.

This report is mandatory for all 101 applicants. If we do not receive your portfolio before the October 31st deadline, you may not be considered for selection! Your Leadership Report should be of no less than four pages and no more than six. Please put your report in a Duo Tang folder (three prong, two pocket type you buy for school) and send it in to the Truth and Peace address:

Truth and Peace
114 Bush Road
Nashville, TN 37217

Please put the references in your leadership report as well. Put the youth pastor/pastor one first.

Please print four copies of the reference form and get four people to fill out a reference on you.

1. One should be your youth pastor/leader, or pastor, if you do not have one.
2. One should be from someone you know at church.
3. One should be from a teacher at your school.
4. One could be from an employer if you have a job or another person such as other teachers, adults, leaders who know you can make a recommendation for you.

101 Reference Form

Only to be used for a student who is applying for the first year of the conference

You have been asked to fill out a reference form for

_____,
who is applying for Truth and Peace. Your input is vital into giving us an accurate picture of their leadership ability and potential.

Thanks for taking the time to fill this out.

Your Name _____ Your relationship to the student _____

Phone number to call if we have further questions (_____) _____ - _____

In your opinion, is this person an introvert or an extrovert?

Considering groups in which this person participates, do they take the lead or do they wait for a leader to emerge and follow them?

If you were to give this person a job or an assignment, do they run with it or do they need step-by-step oversight to get the job done?

How would you rate the character of this person? Do they live a life of integrity and honesty, or do they cut corners, play loose with the truth, or try to justify their own shortcomings?

Is this person teachable or does it seem hard to get them to do something in the way prescribed?

Do you feel this person is modest? If not, give an example of why you do not think this is true.

Is this person needy, in that they need a lot of attention or strokes, or do they seem to be self-sufficient?

Is this person a starter, a finisher, or both?

Would you trust this person to baby-sit your kids if you needed them to?

Does this person seem to need the attention of the opposite gender?

Are there personal issues that would impact their influence as a leader or their ability to learn?

If you are the youth worker or pastor, would you consider this person to be the primary influencer of your group?
