

201 Applicants

1. Fill out the online application sections that apply to you at <http://www.register-tp.com>
2. You only need one reference to be filled out this year. This is the reference letter that is at the end of the packet. It says Returnee Reference on it and it is to be given to the person who has direct spiritual authority over you, such as a youth pastor, or if you do not have a youth pastor, the pastor or leader who can honestly evaluate your service since you have returned from Truth and Peace.
3. Leadership Resume - In place of a portfolio, prepare a leadership resume. List activities from your school, church, youth group, etc. that would give us a good idea of your leadership at a glance.
4. In an essay write a response to the following questions: Why do you want to return to T&P? What are your goals in leadership? How have you applied what you learned in T&P last year?
5. Write out your personal mission statement.

301 Applicants

1. Fill out the online application sections that apply to you <http://www.register-tp.com>.
2. Write a description of what your strengths and weaknesses might be if you were selected as a 301 leader next summer.
3. If you could, what would you want to change about Truth and Peace for next year? Respond in whatever form you would best communicate this.
4. You only need one reference to be filled out this year. This is the reference letter that is at the end of the packet. It says Returnee Reference on it, and it is to be given to the person who has direct spiritual authority over you, such as a youth pastor. If you do not have a youth pastor, the pastor or leader who can honestly evaluate your service since you have returned from Truth and Peace should complete it.

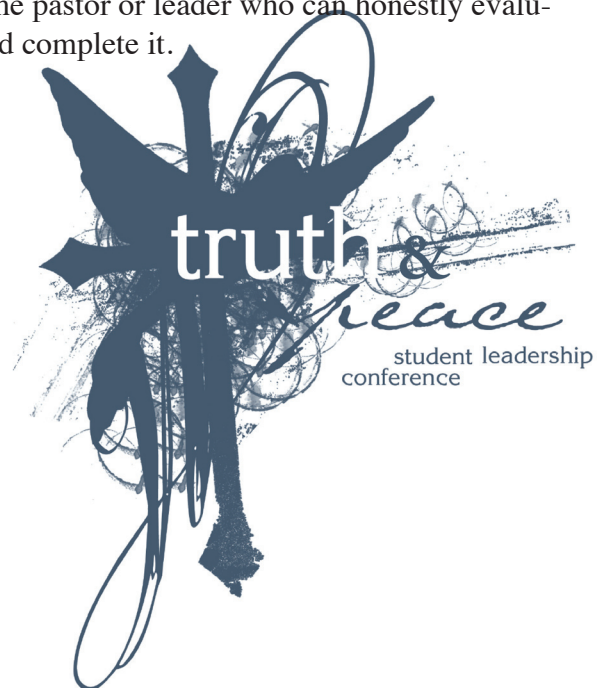

401 Applicants

1. Fill out the application sections that apply to you at <http://www.register-tp.com>.
2. In an essay, communicate why you would like to return for your fourth year and how you would best be used if you returned as a 401.
3. You only need one reference to be filled out this year. This is the reference letter that is at the end of the packet. It says Returnee Reference on it, and it is to be given to the person who has direct spiritual authority over you, such as a youth pastor. If you do not have a youth pastor, the pastor or leader who can honestly evaluate your service since you have returned from Truth and Peace should complete it.

Truth and Peace Student Leadership Conference
P.O. Box 17306
Nashville, TN 37217

If you need the actual physical address, then use:

Randall House
114 Bush Road
Nashville, TN 37217
615-361-1221
800-377-7030

Returnee Reference Form

Only to be used for a student who is applying for the 201-401 level of the conference

You have been asked to fill out a reference form for _____, who is applying to return to Truth and Peace after serving this summer. Your input is vital into giving us an accurate picture of who they have been since they have returned, and whether or not you feel the Truth and Peace experience has helped to enhance their leadership within your local youth group and church.

Your Name _____ Your relationship to the student _____

Phone number to call if we have further questions (_____) _____ - _____

1. As far as your youth group and church is concerned, was Truth and Peace worth the investment in your student since they returned home from the conference? Please explain what you have seen positively or negatively in their lives since July 24, 2012.

2. Name some specific areas where you have seen improvement as a result of the T&P experience for this student.

3. What are some areas that you had hoped T&P would address that you haven't seen exemplified in your student since the summer?

4. Have you shared any of these things with this student (Questions 1-3) since their return? If so, how did this meeting go (in your opinion)? What was shared?

5. Any other opinions about the Truth and Peace experience and your student?